Show Iems

- Vital Signs
- History
- General Impression
- Physical Examination
- Plan
- All of Above

Show Mode

- Sequential
- Multi-frames

Show | Reset

Nose:

Mouth:

Throat:

Neck:

Chest:

Abdomen:

General Impression

1. Alert Listless
2. Active lethargic
3. In distress No apparent distress
4. Toxic (sick looking): Yes No

Plan

No consult necessary if (all criteria met):

- Sore throat is accompanied by signs of a cold (nasal congestion, \ postnasal discharge, cough.
- Fever is absent or low grade. Throat is negnative and minomal for exudate Duration is less than 7 days

1. No consult necessary if (all criteria met):

- Sore throat is accompanied by signs of a cold (nasal congestion, \ postnasal discharge, cough.
- Fever is absent or low grade.
- Throat is negnative and minomal for exudate
- Duration is less than 7 days

Viral etiology is probable and no consult is necessary. If sore throat persists for more than one week, child should be seen for follow-up/consult with NP. Health teaching: information sheet on viral pharyngitis.

2. Consult with nurse practitioner if any of the following are present:

- •

3. Refer immediately to MD:

- •

4. Refer immediately to ED: