"My wish is that all of us here and all the nations of the world break the cups of our EGOs and be unified in love of GOD, the Creator of all of us, in love of mankind, without discrimination of races, believes and nations, living all together, in a world of LOVE, with happiness and peace."

Mewlana Jalaluddin Rumi

Ramadhan

During the month of Ramadhan, Muslims fast from dawn to sunset every day. It is the month in which the first verses of the holy Qur'an were revealed. It is a time for self-purification, inner reflection, devotion to God and self-control. The sighting of the new moon at the end of Ramadhan heralds the Ramadhan Celebration.

Dear Faculty/Colleague/Friend,

The Turkish Student Association of Syracuse University cordially invites you and your family for Ramadhan Celebration on Friday, January 22 (5pm - 7pm) at the Office of International Students (OIS). We will be glad to share our happiness and Turkish desserts with you.

Best Regards,

Turkish Student Association
